I. INTRODUCTORY REMARKS ABOUT THIS STUDY

A. The Background. Original research on this analysis of THE NEW KING JAMES VERSION (NKJV for short) was begun January 1, 1985, when I began comparing EVERY WORD of the NKJV with the KING JAMES VERSION (KJV for short) as well as with the Hebrew and Greek original languages. A serious bout with Hodgkins disease (cancer of the lymph glands) beginning January 1, 1985, with chemotherapy treatments monthly for the 8 months from July, 1985 through February, 1986, has delayed the completion of this research for almost one year. This cancer is now in remission, for which we praise the Lord, and so I have been now able to complete the study.

This REVISED EDITION was the result of some more detailed analysis of the examples singled out for comment on the NEW KING JAMES VERSION. All of the former 585 examples of the category known as "PARAPHRASE" were changed into either ADDITIONS, SUBTRACTIONS, or CHANGES. The total examples in the REVISED EDITION are up from 1,845 to 2,034. I believe this will be an improvement of the analysis of the NKJV, making it easier to follow and to understand. We'll try to keep this PREFACE to the research the same as in the original edition, changing it only where necessary.

B. The Method Used. During 1985, each day I read 85 verses from both the NKJV and the KJV at the same time, taking me through the more than 31,000 verses in the Bible in one year. In this, I followed the YEARLY BIBLE READING schedule published by THE BIBLE FOR TODAY (#179 available upon request). I played my own recording of the KJV on cassettes (43, 2-hour cassettes for the entire Bible [#777/1-43 available from the BFT for a GIFT of $100.00]) and thus LISTENED to the KJV in this manner. My EYES followed closely EACH WORD of the NKJV. Any CHANGES in the wording were noted in red pen by markings following a standard system. I assigned NUMBERS to some of the more important CHANGES from the KJV, and called these "COMMENT NUMBER" in the research print-out. Though there were 2,775 COMMENTS in all, I have used only 2,034 of them in this study. These COMMENTS were compared with the MASORETIC HEBREW TEXT in the Old Testament and with the TEXTUS RECEPTUS GREEK TEXT in the New Testament. Each of these COMMENTS was entered into our computer, and then printed out in 79 pages, alphabetized BY CATEGORY of the comments. This does not mean that there are not OTHER EXAMPLES in addition to the ones cited in this research for each CATEGORY (because there are). It merely means that these that are cited are EXAMPLES of the type of translation technique which was used throughout the NEW KING JAMES VERSION.

C. Other Helpful Publications

- 1. "THE KING JAMES VERSION OF 1611 COMPARED TO THE KING JAMES VERSION OF THE 1917 OLD SCOFIELD BIBLE." This is #1294 and is available from the BIBLE FOR TODAY for a GIFT of $2.50. It is 25 pages in length, and compares the KJV 1611 with the present-day KJV. It is necessary to examine the VERY, VERY FEW changes in SOUND which the present KJV has made over the KJV-1611. The NEW KJV editors used the ALLEGED many changes from the KJV-1611 as an excuse for their venture. As a matter of fact, as the evidence in this report indicates, there were only 421 TRANSLATION CHANGES affecting the SOUND that I found throughout the entire 791,328 words of the A.V. 1611 original Bible. Of these, only really 136 were changes of SUBSTANCE, the others were in FORM only. This does not count SPELLING or PUNCTUATION differences, but only words which sounded different to the EAR.
- 2. "THE NEW KING JAMES VERSION--A DETAILED ACCOUNT WITH 2,775 COMMENTS." This is #1367/1-9 and is a series of 9, 2-hour cassettes in which a running commentary is made of a comparison of the NKJV to the KJV and the HEBREW and GREEK texts. It is available from BFT for a GIFT of $23.00 for the 9 cassettes. It is a running commentary on some of the more important CHANGES made by the NEW KJV.
- 3. "SEVEN DEFECTS IN THE SO-CALLED HODGES-FARSTAD-NELSON 'MAJORITY GREEK TEXT'" This is a 16-page tract written by yours truly which analyzes the so-called "MAJORITY GREEK TEXT" referred to in the NEW KING JAMES VERSION New Testament under the abbreviation "M." It is a reprint of two articles which appeared in the DEAN BURGON NEWS showing SEVEN DEFECTS in the Hodges-Farstad-Nelson Greek text. It is a complicated subject, so you should get this tract (for a GIFT to BFT of 2/$1.50) to understand how the so-called "MAJORITY TEXT" differs form the "TEXTUS RECEPTUS" and Dean Burgon's methods of arriving at the "TRADITIONAL TEXT" of the New Testament.
- 4. My Analysis Of The NEW AMERICAN STANDARD VERSION (NASV) Which Is Now Being Compiled On The Computer. I have also completed my research on the NEW AMERICAN STANDARD VERSION just as I have done for the NEW KING JAMES VERSION. The entire NASV has been read and compared with the KJV, and with the Hebrew and Greek texts underlying the KJV. It makes an excellent companion to the present analysis of the NEW KJV since similarly inferior translation techniques were used in both of these translations. There are 4,232 examples given in this study. It is #1494-P--Revised Edition, over 180 large pages, for a GIFT to BFT of $18.00.

- D. THE NEW KING JAMES TEXT Was The One Issued In 1982. Sometimes editions vary in their pagination, their inclusiveness, their wording, and their footnotes. The only way to know what this study is all about is to compare it to the same NEW KING JAMES VERSION that I used. It has a copyright date of 1982. It has a red hard-backed cover with the number 801 on the spine, below the publisher's name, "NELSON." It has 1236 pages in all, and has both a "PREFACE" and a "HISTORY OF THE RING JAMES BIBLE."
- E. How The "NEW KING JAMES VERSION" Editors Described Their "REVISION" Of The King James Version.
- 1. What The Editors Wrote. The Editors of the NKJV, in the section on "THE HISTORY OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE," wrote concerning their own so-called "REVISION" of the A.V. 1611:

"The expression of concern which Nelson Bible editors had been hearing for several years was confirmed by those in attendance [at a meeting in London, England, in 1976]. And there was a strong sentiment that THE KING JAMES BIBLE SHOULD ONCE MORE BE SENSITIVELY REVISED in a way that would retain everything that could be retained of the text and language of that historic translation. . . . It was a long and thoughtful process, requiring THE SAME KIND OF PATIENCE AND CARE, the same kind of digging away at the roots to find the true meaning of the original as was used by the translators of 1611." [NEW KING JAMES VERSION, op. cit., pp. 1234, 1235].

- 2. What The Editors Implied. The foregoing words implied that their present NEW KING JAMES VERSION was but one more "REVISION" of the A.V. 1611. The words, "ONCE MORE BE SENSITIVELY REVISED" seem to imply this and to tie it into the A.V. 1611 chain of "REVISIONS." The words, "THE SAME KIND OF PATIENCE AND CARE," and "THE SAME KIND of digging," all imply to the unsuspecting public that their NKJV was but one more "REVISION" rather than what it is in truth—an EXTENSIVE TRANSLATION REVISION OF THE A.V. 1611 UNLIKE ANY OF THEM FROM 1611 THROUGH THE 1917 OLD SCOFIELD KJV!!!
- F. An Approximate Comparison Between The TRANSLATION CHANGES of the Present-Day KJV and the NEW KJV From The A.V. 1611. It is estimated that there were about 100,000 TRANSLATION CHANGES for the NEW KING JAMES VERSION (and I think this is quite conservative, and very LOW as an estimate). This would be an average of 82 CHANGES for each of the 1219 pages of the NKJV edition which I used. On p. 292, for example, I count 91. This includes the use of "you" for "thou" or "ye" and the changes from "goest" to "go" or "hath" to "has," and so on. This would total 110,929 CHANGES if it were an average. I think therefore that 100,000 would be a good average. If this estimate is true, the following would be a COMPARATIVE CHART:

II. SOME PRELIMINARY CONCLUSIONS ABOUT THE NEW KING JAMES VERSION

A. Explanatory Comment. Though "CONCLUSIONS" properly belong at the END of the research and study, I think it is important to lay out for you some of my CONCLUSIONS about the so-called "NEW KING JAMES VERSION" right at the beginning so that you can test them out as we move through the specific evidence.

B. Preliminary Conclusions. Here are a few such CONCLUSIONS:

- CONCLUSION #1: The NEW KING JAMES VERSION IS THE MOST DANGER-OUS BIBLE VERSION On The Market Today!! Why do I say this? I say this because it uses the name "KING JAMES" in its title. It throws the non-thinking Christian off balance--especially the one who has been used to the KING JAMES VERSION for most of his Christian life. The deceptive use of "KING JAMES VER-SION" in the title would lead many to think that there are only a few small incidental changes in their NEW KJV, but it is basically just the KING JAMES VER-SION with a few minor changes in it to bring it up to date. NOTHING COULD BE FURTHER FROM THE TRUTH!! I certainly do NOT call a PERVERSION of the Bible with upwards of 100,000 CHANGES merely a "FEW MINOR CHANGES"! Another assumption by the use of the words "KING JAMES VERSION" in the title is that they make use of THE SAME TRANSLATION PRINCIPLES as they used in the KING JAMES VERSION of 1611. Again, NOTHING COULD BE FURTHER FROM THE TRUTH!! The METHODS and TRANSLATION TECHNIQUES of the NEW KING JAMES VERSION have NO PLACE in the KING JAMES VERSION of 1611! In short, the NEW KING JAMES VER-SION is a COUNTERFEIT of the KING JAMES VERSION by the use of the name, "KING JAMES VERSION" in the title. Just as NOTHING IS MORE DANGEROUS in the realm of currency than a CLOSE COUNTERFEIT, so in Bible translations. People are NOT looking for proximity to the KING JAMES VERSION in the ASV, NASV, NIV, NEB, TEV, LB, or other PERVERSIONS. But, when the name "NEW" KING JAMES VER-SION is used, the uninformed observer right a way thinks that this is very CLOSE to the genuine KING JAMES VERSION, and so might buy it and use it. In actuality, it is a DECEPTIVE COUNTERFEIT of the real thing! While the NEW KJV borrows the "NAME" of the KING JAMES VERSION, the similarity stops there! It is just another NEW TRANSLATION that came out in 1982, with more similarity to the ENGLISH REVISED VERSION (ERV) of 1881, the AMERICAN STANDARD VERSION (ASV) of 1901, the NEW AMERICAN STANDARD VERSION (NASV) of 1968, or the NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) of 1978, than to the KJV of 1611!!
- 2. CONCLUSION #2: The NEW KING JAMES VERSION Used The DIABOLICAL Method Of "DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCE" Repeatedly While Professing A Love For "COMPLETE EQUIVALENCE." On page iv of the PREFACE of the NEW KJV, the editors extol the virtues of what they call "COMPLETE EQUIVALENCE" which is what (they say) was used in the KJV. The editors wrote:

"This principle of COMPLETE EQUIVALENCE seeks to preserve all of the information in the text, while presenting it in good literary form. DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCE, a recent procedure in Bible translation, commonly results in PARAPHRAS-

ING where a more LITERAL RENDERING IS NEEDED to reflect a specific and vital sense." [NEW KJV, PREFACE, p. iv]

The editors later go on to say how they have used "COMPLETE EQUIVALENCE" and have shunned "DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCE." This is a lie! As we have shown repeatedly in the evidence herein reproduced, the NEW KJV is replete with the DIABOLICAL "DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCE"! This is seen in the 63 examples of "ADDITIONS" (pp. 1-3); in the 856 examples of "CHANGES" (pp. 3-36); as well as in the 295 examples of OMISSIONS (pp. 67-79). Because of this failing, the NEW KJV CANNOT BE TRUSTED OR RELIED UPON!!

3. CONCLUSION #3: The NEW KING JAMES VERSION Old Testament Text Is Based On A DIFFERENT HEBREW TEXT Than The KJV And Often Doubts Even Their Own Different Text. The PREFACE of the NEW KJV (p. vi) admitted that the KJV of 1611 was based upon the JACOB BEN CHAYYIM HEBREW TEXT whereas the NEW KJV is admittedly based upon the Hebrew Text of BEN ASHER which was followed in the "Leningrad Manuscript B19a (A.D. 1008)." (op. cit., p. vi). This is bad enough, but there is more. In the 48 examples where there is a "NON-MAS-ORETIC TEXT" suggested in the footnotes of the NEW KJV (cf. pp. 36-38), there is no clear indication that the editors have an unshaken confidence even in their BEN ASHER Hebrew Text in clear preference to the other bases such as (1) The Septuagint (LXX) Greek Text; (2) The Latin Vulgate; (3) The Ancient Versions (like the Syriac or the Samaritan Pentateuch) or (4) The Dead Sea Scrolls (Cf. PREFACE, p. vi and EVIDENCE on NEW KJV, pp. 36-38). As you can see from the evidence, other footnotes are based upon a few Hebrew Manuscripts, many Hebrew Manuscripts, the Qere, a Targum, Josephus, or even on speculation or conjecture. The footnote can just as easily be followed as that which is printed in the NEW KJV text in the Old Testament. The NEW KJV editors explain this very clearly at the end of their translation on page 1235. They wrote:

"It was the editors' conviction that the USE OF FOOTNOTES would encourage further inquiry by readers. They also recognized that IT WAS EASIER for the average reader TO DELETE SOMETHING HE OR SHE FELT WAS NOT PROPERLY A PART OF THE TEXT, THAN TO INSERT A WORD OR PHRASE WHICH HAD BEEN LEFT OUT BY THE REVISERS." ["THE HISTORY OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE," NASV. p. 1235].

Certainly this is an encouragement for the NEW KJV reader to "DELETE" something he thought was "not properly a part of the text," and thus become his own "TEXTUAL CRITIC." It is apparent that, for the editors of the NEW KJV, the underlying original language Biblical texts are not settled, but, on the contrary, these texts are in a constant flux! Each suggested DEPARTURE from the KJV BASES casts SERIOUS DOUBT upon these sources, and every Word of God! It is most confusing to the average Christian, and remember, "GOD IS NOT THE AUTHOR OF CONFUSION"! (1 Corinthians 14:33).

4. CONCLUSION .#4: "The NEW KING JAMES VERSION New Testament Text Offers A Smorgasbord Of Textual Choices, (Including The WESTCOTT-HORT Readings), Without Commenting on Which Is Correct, Thus CONFUSING The Readers Worse Than Any Other Version In Print! If the NEW KJV only had the English translation (erroneous as it is in so many places), without a single footnote (like it originally came out in the New Testament edition), that would be bad enough; but the NEW KJV in the New Testament has given the alternatives in the footnotes of "NU" (referring to the Nestles/United Bible Society text which is almost equal to the old WESTCOTT & HORT readings) and of "M" (referring to the so-called "MAJORITY TEXT" of Hodges and Farstad published by Nelson). The reader therefore has his choice of THREE GREEK TEXTS on many occasions: (1) the TEXTUS RECEPTUS (T.R.) (used in the translation); (2) the NESTLES/UNITED BIBLE SOCIETY text (NU); or (3) the so-called MAJORITY TEXT (M). I call your attention to "SEVEN DEFECTS IN THE SO-CALLED HODGES-FAR-STAD-NELSON 'MAJORITY GREEK TEXT'" mentioned earlier in this study. It is for a GIFT to BFT of 2/$1.50 and is written by yours truly. It explains the seven defects in the so-called "MAJORITY GREEK TEXT" of Hodges-Farstad-Nelson. The quotation used above regarding the NEW KJV's use of FOOTNOTES should be looked at again in the New Testament. The editors wrote:

"It was the editors' conviction that the USE OF FOOTNOTES would encourage further inquiry by readers. They also recognized that IT WAS EASIER for the average reader TO DELETE SOMETHING HE OR SHE FELT WAS NOT PROPERLY A PART OF THE TEXT, THAN TO INSERT A WORD OR PHRASE WHICH HAD BEEN LEFT OUT BY THE REVISERS." ["THE HISTORY OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE," NASV, p. 1235].

Again, this is an invitation for any reader of the NEW KJV to " $\underline{\text{DELETE}}$ " anything he feels doesn't belong, thus casting SATANIC DOUBT on the $\underline{\text{WORDS}}$ of God that He has preserved for us! The editors take NO POSITION WHATEVER on which GREEK TEXT should be followed. They wrote:

"The textual information in the New Testament FOOTNOTES is a unique provision ion the history of the English Bible. Terms in the FOOTNOTES such as 'better manuscripts' are avoided. The FOOTNOTES in the present edition MAKE NO EVALUATION OF THE READINGS, but do clearly indicate the manuscript sources of readings which diverge from the TRADITIONAL TEXT. Thus a clearly defined presentation of the variants is provided for the benefit of interested READERS REPRESENTING ALL TEXTUAL PERSUASIONS." [PREFACE, p. vii].

In other words, Nelson Publishers has desired to "MAKE A DOLLAR" on those from "ALL TEXTUAL PERSUASIONS" and therefore has remained NEUTRAL as to what are the very WORDS OF THE LIVING GOD! Shame on them for this NEUTRALITY in such a vital subject! This represents a BETRAYAL of Nelson Publishers' formerly announced position favoring the TEXTUS RECEPTUS, or at least the so-called "MAJORITY GREEK TEXT" and most certainly OPPOSING THE WESTCOTT & HORT position! They took the ANTI-WESTCOTT & HORT POSITION by publishing Wilbur Pickering's book, THE IDENTITY OF THE NEW TESTAMENT TEXT (#556 which is available for a GIFT to BFT of $10.00). They also favored the so-called "MAJORITY GREEK TEXT" position by their publication of Hodges & Farstad's so-called "MAJORITY GREEK TEXT" itself. There are a total of 772 CHANGES from the Textus Receptus suggested by the NKJV (Cf. pp. 38-67). Yet now, in this NEW KING JAMES VERSION, they have become TEXTUALLY NEUTERED!! Shame on them! Anything for a PROFIT!

5. CONCLUSION #5: The NEW KING JAMES VERSION IS Not In Its FINAL FORM, But Will Likely Be REVISED EVEN FURTHER, And FOR THE WORSE. As bad as the NEW KJV may be in its present form, there is every indication that it will be REVISED EVEN FURTHER FOR THE WORSE in the months and years ahead. Perhaps even bolder changes will be made in the Old Testament text as well as the New Testament text. It has been reported to me that Professor Zane Hodges was disappointed that Nelson did not use his so-called "MAJORITY GREEK TEXT" as the basis for their NEW KJV rather than the TEXTUS RECEPTUS. He has sought to put pressure on Nelson Publishers to bring this about, but it is uncertain whether or not it will come to pass. Word from another source is that Nelson's NEW KJV has not been selling as they had hoped it would, and that the company has been taking some financial reversals because of it and other problems. Whether this above speculation is true or not, it stands to reason that the NEW KJV has not been "set in concrete," but will be REVISED and REVISED and REVISED again, just like the other modern versions and perversions of the Bible. We don't need more MOVEMENT and FLUX and FLOW in our Bible wording! We need to HOLD THE LINE on the KING JAMES VERSION and its UNDERLYING HEBREW AND GREEK TEXTS!!

III. SUMMARY OF THE 79 PAGES OF 2,034 SPECIFIC ILLUSTRATIONS

The following CATEGORIES will be commented on briefly: (1) ADDS WORDS; (2) CHANGES WORDS: (a) CHANGES NOUN TO PRONOUN; (b) CHANGES NUMBER OF PRONOUN; (c) CHANGES PERSON OF PRONOUN; (d) CHANGES PLURALS; (e) CHANGES PRONOUN TO NOUN; (3) NON-MASORETIC TEXT; (4) NON-TEXTUS RECEPTUS; and (5) OMITS SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD.
- C. BRIEF COMMENTS On Some Of The FIVE Of The Major CATEGORIES OF TRANSLA-TION ERRORS In The NEW KING JAMES VERSION.
- 1. CATEGORY #1: THE NEW KING JAMES VERSION ADDS WORDS [Cf. DOCU-MENTATION, pp. 1-3]. There are 63 illustrations of the NKJV's ADDING to the Words of God. The "ADDING" of words to the WORDS OF GOD is prohibited throughout the Bible. Revelation 22:18 is especially appropriate. Yet, the NKJV ADDS nouns, prepositional phrases, pronouns, and verbs. Words are ADD-ED such as "family," "Moses," "God," "Jewish," "Jesus" "open your hearts," "Jews," "at the mouth," "with her head," "supports," "aroused," and "broke." Not a one of these ADDED WORDS is in the Hebrew or Greek text that underlies the KJV! This is NOT FAITHFULNESS IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT ACCURACY IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT RELIABILITY IN TRANSLATION. It is DIABOLICAL DY-NAMIC EQUIVALENCY!!

- 2. CATEGORY #2: THE NEW KING JAMES VERSION CHANGES VARIOUS WORDS [Cf. DOCUMENTATION, pp. 5-22].
- a. THE NEW KING JAMES CHANGES NOUNS TO PRONOUNS [Cf. DOCUMENTATION, pp. 20-21]. There are 37 illustrations of the NKJV's CHANGING OF NOUNS TO PRONOUNS. This is in addition to four other "CHANGES" (pp. 3-22). When God says "MOSES" took the blood, the NKJV has no right to change this NOUN into the pronoun, "HE" took the blood. The same goes for when the NKJV CHANGES "priest" to "he"; "son" to "one"; "soul" to "yourself," "myself," "me," "him," "I," "you," "himself," "ourselves," "yourselves," or "themselves." Not a one of these CHANGED WORDS is in the Hebrew or Greek text that underlies the KJV! This is NOT FAITHFULNESS IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT ACCURACY IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT RELIABILITY IN TRANSLATION. It is DIABOLICAL DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCY!!
- b. THE NEW KING JAMES CHANGES THE NUMBER OF PRONOUNS [Cf. DOCU-MENTATION, pp. 22-23]. There are 24 illustrations of the NKJV's CHANGING THE NUMBER OF PRONOUNS. This includes the NKJV's CHANGING of "he" to "they"; "him" to "them"; "his" to "their"; "it" to "they"; "me" to "us"; "my" to "our"; "them" to "him"; "them" to "it"; and "they" to "he". Not a one of these CHANGED PRONOUN NUMBERS is in the Hebrew or Greek text that underlies the KJV! This is NOT FAITHFULNESS IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT ACCURACY IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT RELIABILITY IN TRANSLATION. It is DIABOLICAL DY-NAMIC EQUIVALENCY!!
- C. THE NEW KING JAMES CHANGES THE PERSON OF PRONOUNS [Cf. DOCU-MENTATION, pp. 23-24]. There are 9 illustrations of the NKJV's CHANGING THE PERSON OF PRONOUNS. This includes the NKJV's CHANGING of "her" to "your"; "his" to "your"; "me" to "you"; "thee" to "him"; "their" to "our"; "them" to "you"; "they" to "I"; and "you" to "them." Not a one of these CHANGED PRONOUN PERSONS is in the Hebrew or Greek text that underlies the KJV! This is NOT FAITHFULNESS IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT ACCURACY IN TRANSLATION. It is DIABOLICAL DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCY!!
- d. THE NEW KING JAMES CHANGES PLURALS [Cf. DOCUMENTATION, pp. 24-25]. There are 19 illustrations of the NKJV's CHANGING OF THE PLURAL. In each instance, the NKJV CHANGES the already plural collective word "people" to "peoples," which is both stilted, and most unnecessary since "people" is already a PLURAL word in English. The COMPACT EDITION OF THE OXFORD ENGLISH DICTIONARY, Volume II, P-Z, pp. 661-662, has this to say about the subject of "PEOPLE" vs. "PEOPLES":
 - "PEOPLE . . . 1. A body of persons composing a community, tribe, race, or nation; . . . Sometimes viewed as a unity, sometimes as a collective of number . . . b. in sing. form, construed as a PLURAL. c. pl. PEOPLES, nations, races . . . This form was AVOIDED IN 16th C. BIBLE VERSIONS, and by many 17th and 18th C. writers. It was thought to require defence or explanation even in 1817 and 1830. d. In the sense 'nations' the form PEOPLE was also used unchanged: constantly so for the Gr. and Heb. pl. in Tindale and Coverdale and other 16th C. Bible versions founded on them (but not in

By DAW

.Rhem.); nearly always so in Geneva, and in 1611 (where the RE-VISERS OF 1881-5 HAVE UNIFORMLY SUBSTITUTED PEOPLES). . ."

In other words, you do NOT need to use "PEOPLES to have the sense of the PLURAL, even though the Hebrew and Greek have plurals. The word, "PEOPLE" was used by the 16th & 17th & 18th Century Bible versions and writers. "PEOPLES" was AVOIDED in these same centuries. The word "PEOPLES" was used uniformly in the WESTCOTT & HORT-SANCTIONED ENGLISH REVISED VERSION (E.R.V.) of 1881-1885! Let's avoid like the plague any contamination of this miserable E.R.V.!!

- e. THE NEW KING JAMES CHANGES PRONOUNS TO NOUNS [Cf. DOCUMENTATION, pp. 25-30]. There are 113 illustrations of the NKJV's CHANGING PRONOUNS TO NOUNS. This includes the NKJV's CHANGING of "they" to "people"; "it" to "curse"; "he" to "Jehoiachin"; "this" to "commandments"; "he" to "Saul"; "he" to "Mordecai"; "he" to "Cornelius"; "he" to "Amalek"; "he" to "Joseph"; "he" to "Mordecai"; "he" to "God"; "he" to "Elii"; "he" to "David"; "he" to "Jabin"; "he" to "Ahaziah"; "he" to "God"; "he" to "Elii"; "he" to "David"; "he" to "Jointhan"; "he" to "Jonathan"; "he" to "Moses"; "he" to "Jonathan"; "he" to "Moses"; "he" to "Jonathan"; "he" to "Moses"; "he" to "Jonathan"; "he" to "Nebuzaradan"; "he" to "Mordecai"; "he" to "Pharaoh"; "he" to "Solomon"; "he" to "Jeremiah"; "he to "widow"; "her" to "woman"; "him" to "Jacob"; "him" to "Jehoiakim's"; "his" to "Jehoiachin's"; "his" to "Levi's"; "his" to "Eglon's"; "it" to "lamb"; "it" to "water," and so on, and so on. See pp. 12-16 for more details of these CHANGES. Not a one of these CHANGES FROM PRONOUNS TO NOUNS is in the Hebrew or Greek text that underlies the KJV! This is NOT FAITHFULNESS IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT ACCURACY IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT RELIABILITY IN TRANSLATION. It is DIABOLICAL DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCY!!
- CATEGORY #3: THE NEW KING JAMES VERSION QUOTES NON-MASORETIC TEXTS IN THE OLD TESTAMENT [Cf. DOCUMENTATION, pp. 36-38]. There are 48 illustrations of the NKJV's QUOTING of NON-MASORETIC TEXTS in their footnotes. The DANGER of this is that the reader is left to make up his mind and to become a TEXTUAL CRITIC and decide whether or not he should take the proper and correct MASORETIC TEXT reading, or deviate in the direction of some NON-MASORETIC textual variant. This includes suggested changes on the authority of the following 18 SOURCES: (1) MANY MANUSCRIPTS, (2) the QERE (what is read), (3) a TARGUM, (4) the SYRIAC, (5) the SAMARITAN PENTATEUCH, (6) SOME HEBREW MSS, (7) the LXX (SEPTUAGINT, or Greek Old Testament), (8) the LATIN VULGATE, (9) SOME ANCIENT AUTHORITIES, (10) NO MANUSCRIPT AUTHORITY at all, just the editor's preference, (11) JOSEPHUS, (12) DEAD SEA SCROLLS, (13) HEB-REW MSS., (14) SOME AUTHORITIES, (15) ANCIENT VERSIONS, (16) FEW HEBREW MSS., (17) ARABIC, and (18) SEVERAL HEBREW MSS. What we need is NOT such a "version" as the NEW KING JAMES VERSION which says to its readers: "You can choose one of these 18 other sources instead of the MASORETIC HEBREW TEXT if you want to." We need, rather, someone to tell our youth and our adults: "The MASOR-ETIC HEBREW TEXT is the ONLY text to follow in the Old Testament! All others MUST BE REJECTED!!" Not a one of these QUOTES FROM NON-MASORETIC SOURC-ES is in the Hebrew text that underlies the KJV! This is NOT FAITHFULNESS IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT ACCURACY IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT RELIABILITY IN TRANSLATION. It is DIABOLICAL DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCY!!

- 4. CATEGORY #4: THE NEW KING JAMES VERSION QUOTES NON-TEXTUS RE-CEPTUS TEXTS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT [Cf. DOCUMENTATION, pp. 20-79]. There are 772 illustrations of the NKJV's QUOTING of NON-TEXTUS RECEPTUS TEXTS in their footnotes. The DANGER of this is that the reader is left to make up his mind (just as in the Old Testament footnotes) and to become a TEXTUAL CRITIC and decide whether or not he should take the proper and correct TEXTUS RECEPTUS reading, or deviate in the direction of some NON-TEXTUS RECEPTUS textual variant, whether this be the old WESTCOTT & HORT READINGS (perpetuated by the "NU" (NESTLES/UNITED BIBLE SOCIETIES) reading, or the "M" (so-called "MA-JORITY TEXT") reading. The deficiencies of the so-called Hodges & Farstad's "Majority Text" are outlined clearly in my 16-tract: "SEVEN DEFECTS IN THE SO-CALLED HODGES-FARSTAD-NELSON 'MAJORITY GREEK TEXT.'" Due to the DEFECTS in this "M" text, and the obvious DEFECTS in the WESTCOTT/HORT text (as evidenced by Dean John William Burgon's books and many other materials carried by the BIBLE FOR TODAY), neither the "NU" readings nor the "M" readings should be followed, but rather the tried and true TEXTUS RECEPTUS READINGS on which their English text is supposedly based. The printing of these VARI-ANT READINGS makes for CONFUSION TWICE CONFUSED on the part of all who might pick up a copy of the NKJV! When someone sees all the variations in these FOOTNOTES, they throw up their hands and ask, "Well, which one is the WORD OF GOD?!" This is exactly what the Devil wishes to have done--CREATE DOUBT IN Nelson has failed to take a STAND on ANY of the THREE GREEK Their NEUTRALITY is obviously an effort to SELL THEIR WARES GOD'S WORDS! TEXTS USED! to ALL GROUPS of the three! On the contrary, I believe such NEUTRALITY in the midst of one of the hottest issues of our day is to be condemned by those in ALL THREE GROUPS!! Not a one of these QUOTES FROM NON-TEXTUS RECEPTUS SOURCES is in the Greek text that underlies the KJV! This is NOT FAITHFUL-NESS IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT ACCURACY IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT RELI-ABILITY IN TRANSLATION. It is DIABOLICAL DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCY!!
- 5. CATEGORY #5: THE NEW KING JAMES VERSION OMITS THE SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD [Cf. DOCUMENTATION, pp. 69-78]. There are 232 illustrations of the NKJV's OMITTING THE SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD. There were also about 150 instances which were left out of this study because of a lack of space on the computer disks. The English language, along with the Spanish, French, Latin, Greek, and many more languages, has at least three MOODS: (1) indicative; (2) imperative; and (3) subjunctive.

The COMPACT EDITION OF THE OXFORD ENGLISH DICTIONARY, Volume II, P-Z, pp. 661-662, has this to say about the subject of the "SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD":

"SUBJUNCTIVE" . . . 1. Gram . . . b. Designating a MOOD . . . the forms of which are employed to denote an action or a state as CONCEIVED (and NOT as a FACT) and therefore used to express a WISH, COMMAND, EXHORTATION, OR A CONTINGENT, HYP-OTHETICAL, OR PROSPECTIVE EVENT. . . "

The SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD is used when there is a doubt in the mind of the speaker that some event will take place. (This is a "CONTINGENT, HYPOTHET-ICAL, or PROSPECTIVE EVENT"). Though there are many rules for the use of the SUBJUNCTIVE: MOOD, one of the strictest rules is that you are to use the SUBJUNCTIVE in a clause beginning with "IF" which is contrary to fact or which is in doubt. The same is true for the words "before," "except," "unless," and some others. Yet repeatedly (if not IN 100% OF THE CASES) the NKJV refuses to use the SUBJUNCTIVE mood, but, instead, uses the INDICATIVE mood. This is a serious error in English grammar! Illustrations of the NKJV's OMITTING THE SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD include: "before the cock crows" (instead of "before the cock crows"); "if . . . is of men" (instead of "if . . . be of men"); "if . . . comes" (instead of "if . . . come") "if I am lifted up" (instead of "if I be lifted up"), and scores of others as you can note from the DOCUMENTATION, pages 80-97. The SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD is NOT merely a usage in the days of the KING JAMES BIBLE. Its use is one of the marks of an educated and cultured speaker and/or writer of the 1980's as well! In the New Testament Greek, the SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD is used in these New Testament instances which are given in this study, yet the NKJV has chosen to DISREGARD UTTERLY the original language at this point. This is NOT FAITHFULNESS IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT ACCURACY IN TRANSLATION. It is NOT RELIABILITY IN TRANSLATION. It is DIABOLICAL DYNAMIC EQUIVALENCY!!

IV. HOW TO USE THE "DOCUMENTATION" PAGES (pp. 1-79) THAT FOLLOW

Though, perhaps, this section is not necessary in every case, it is possible that you might not understand what each of the SEVEN COLUMNS in the DOCU-MENTATION PAGES 1-79 stand for. For this reason, let me offer this brief explanation of them.

- A. The Numbering System Used. We have numbered the DOCUMENTATION pages from 1 to 79, and the preceding pages are numbered i-xvi. There should not be any confusion in these numbers. Whenever we have referred to the DOCUMENTATION pages by number, it is clear that we mean the pages from 1-79 in the back of this study.
- B. "RECORD NUMBER"--Column #1. The "RECORD NUMBER" is merely the place the information is found in our computer disk. It can be disregarded for the purpose of this study.
- C. "COMMENT NUMBER & NEW KJV FOOTNOTE"--Column #2. The "COMMENT NUMBER" is on the first line of this column in each entry, and refers to the number in the margin of my copy of the NEW KING JAMES VERSION from COMMENT #1 in Genesis 1 through COMMENT #2675 in Revelation 22. This can be disregarded for the purpose of this study. The "NEW KJV FOOTNOTE" is in the second line, below the "COMMENT NUMBER," and is used in such CATEGORIES as "NON-MASORETIC TEXT" (pp. 36-38) and "NON-TEXTUS RECEPTUS" (pp. 38-67). In these two CATEGORIES, the FOOTNOTES are recorded for the sake of comparison.
- D. "OT/NT"--Column #3. This indicates whether the comment is from the OLD TESTAMENT or the NEW TESTAMENT.
- E. "BOOK NO."--Column #4. This indicates the NUMBER of the BOOK in the order in which it occurs in the Bible. For example, Genesis would be BOOK #1, and Revelation would be BOOK #66.
- F. "BIBLE REFERENCE"--Column #5. This is self-explanatory. It refers to the Book, Chapter, and Verse where the illustration is located.

- G. "KJV READING & NEW KJV READING"--Column #6. On the FIRST line of each entry is the reading of the KING JAMES VERSION. On the SECOND line is the reading of the NEW KING JAMES VERSION. In many instances I have abbreviated the reference in order to make the comparison more clear. Especially is this true in the CATEGORY of "OMITS SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD" where, for example, on DOCUMENTATION page 81, for Romans 11:15 we contrast "IF . . . BE" with "IF . . . IS" to show the SUBJUNCTIVE mood for the KJV and the INDICATIVE mood used in the NEW KJV. Some intervening words are omitted.
- H. "CATEGORY"--Column #7. This CATEGORY column is the column that is listed in the DOCUMENTATION in alphabetical order. As mentioned on p. 7 above, there are 5 MAJOR CATEGORIES that are included in the study.
- I. CORRECTIONS WELCOMED. Should I have made any mistakes in any of my research study on this theme, I would WELCOME any comments you might have in order to CORRECT them in the next edition. It is my hope that this study will do much to aid in EXPOSING THE "NEW KING JAMES VERSION" for what it really is. As you can see, I have taken TWO YEARS AND TWO MONTHS to put this all together. The study is NOT mere OPINION, or mere GENERALIZATION, but is LOADED WITH DETAILS and FACTS!
 - V. DOCUMENTATION (pp. 1-79) COMPARING THE "NEW KING JAMES VERSION"
 WITH THE "KING JAMES VERSION" AND THE UNDERLYING HEBREW & GREEK TEXTS
